COPENHAGEN, DENMARK – Day 1: Friday, July 26, 2024

See another side of this lovely city with a cruise along its charming canals. Visit the quaint old harbor at Nyhavn and beautiful Rosenborg Castle and, of course, the famed statue of the Little Mermaid. Or venture into the countryside and enjoy its panoramic vistas, fairy tale castles and the village of Fredensborg.

OSLO, NORWAY – Day 2: Saturday, July 27, 2024

Overlooking a gorgeous fjord, Norway's capital and largest city simply radiates with natural beauty and sophistication. Oslo's rich seafaring history is on display at the Viking Ships Museum, rivaled only by the Kon-Tiki Museum, which holds the balsawood raft that Norwegian adventurer Thor Heyerdahl used to sail from Peru to Polynesia. History aside, Oslo exudes a love of the outdoors in city parks like Vigeland, which is adorned with over 200 life-size sculptures by artist Gustav Vigeland. Much of Oslo is heavily forested with pines, making it one of Europe's greenest cities.

KRISTIANSAND, NORWAY – Day 3: Sunday, July 28, 2024

Founded in 1641 near the southern tip of Norway, Kristiansand once claimed the world's largest fleet of sailing ships. Today the proud city exudes an energy that peaks in summer, when your ship calls. The Posebyen old quarter boasts a collection of historic wooden houses surrounded by shops and restaurants. Museums abound and include the Agder Museum of Natural History and Botanical Garden, which opened in 1828. Kristiansand Zoo, said to be Norway's most visited attraction, covers 150 acres of Nordic terrain where animals like red pandas, moose and Bactrian camels roam in wide-open spaces.

BERGEN, NORWAY – Day 4: Monday, July 29, 2024

Norway's medieval capital pays homage to its past with wooden houses and cobbled streets that grace the historic Bryggen area around the wharf. Here the Hanseatic Museum reveals a glimpse of working life in the Middle Ages, and the eerie 13th century Rosenkrantz Tower offers a phenomenal view of the seaport. But Bergen is also contemporary. The modern city stretches inland from the harbor, tempting visitors with attractions such as Bergen Aquarium and Trolls' Hill, the romantic summer villa of Norwegian composer Edvard Grieg, who is buried on the estate.

CRUISING THE NORWEGIAN SEA - Day 5: Tuesday, July 30, 2024

LEKNES (LOFOTEN ISLANDS), NORWAY- Day 6: Wednesday, July 31, 2024

Sailing into the dramatic Lofoten Islands among towering jagged peaks and sheltered bays sets the stage for an unforgettable experience. Nothing short of stunning, the main islands – Austvågøy, Vestvågøy, Flakstadøy and Moskenesøy – are separated from the mainland by a long fjord, but all are connected by bridges and tunnels. Located on Vestvågøy, Leknes is a gateway to unspoiled beaches and the Lofotr Viking Museum as well as traditional fishing villages and outdoor adventures on nearby islands. The unique quality of light has long drawn artists to the archipelago, so you'll also find myriad galleries featuring everything from glassware and sculptures to jewelry. If you're yearning to experience a Lofoten-style city, head to the unofficial capital of Svolvær.

HARSTAD, NORWAY - Day 7: Thursday, August 1, 2024

Nestled on the eastern shores of stunning Hinnøya, Norway's largest island, Harstad beckons with its active lifestyle and rich history. Hike and even ride an e-bike through a pristine landscape of Rolling Meadows fringed by towering, jagged mountains, or simply relax shoreside with delightful views of the shimmering Vågsfjorden and its myriad islets. The traditional grass-roofed homes of the Sandtorg Bygdetun immerse you in the life of 18th-century local farmers and fishermen, showcasing intriguing artifacts and workshops from the distant past. Military history buffs will thrill to Meløyvær Fort, a Cold War relic that was once of strategic importance to NATO and features a perfectly preserved control center as well as three 120mm Bofors guns.

ALTA, NORWAY - Day 8: Friday, August 2, 2024

Cradled within the majestic Altafjord, Alta is a modestly sized city yet boasts a wealth of natural, historic and architectural treasures. In the Rock Art of Alta UNESCO World Heritage site, bewitching rock carvings, some created up to 6,000 years ago, depict everyday activities of the Stone Age such as hunting and fishing. The 19th-century Alta Church enchants with its austere beauty, while the strikingly futuristic Northern Lights Cathedral, clad in titanium, spirals upward like a mysterious sea creature. As in most of Norway, breathtaking scenery abounds, so both locals and visitors take advantage of the area's ample natural gifts by kayaking the fjord or hiking in awe-inspiring Alta Canyon, one of the largest in Europe.

NORTH CAPE (HONNINGSVAAG), NORWAY - Day 9: Saturday, August 3, 2024

While the Midnight Sun will soon dip below the horizon, Honningsvåg should be illuminated throughout the evening spent here. It's an awe-inspiring setting in northernmost Norway, surrounded by dense forests and fjords, inhabited by reindeer and held sacred by the indigenous Sami people. One of the world's most memorable, otherworldly experiences is standing atop the precipitous North Cape, the late-night sun eerily hanging over the Arctic Ocean. There is even a museum in town devoted to the North Cape. The area is also famous for the Gjesværstappan Nature Reserve, where literally millions of arctic birds flourish during the summer nesting period.

HAMMERFEST, NORWAY- Day 10: Sunday, August 4, 2024

Founded in 1838, Hammerfest was razed repeatedly over the years by storms, fires and most savagely by retreating German soldiers at the end of World War II. Now almost completely rebuilt (it was Europe's first city with electric street lights), Hammerfest is known for its colorful homes lining the sea, contemporary attractions and passion for welcoming visitors to its pristine Arctic environs. The most avant-garde building is the striking Kirkegata church with its tent-shaped gable. But don't miss the whaling artifacts in the museum in Market Square, or the panoramic view atop Salen ridge.

TROMSO, NORWAY - Day 11: Monday, August 5, 2024

As you admire the striking architecture of the Arctic Cathedral and Polaria aquarium overlooking Tromsø Sound, you may get the sense that this city, 250 miles north of the Arctic Circle, has an edgy streak. This should come as no surprise in a place where the sun never sets – or rises – depending on the month. The area's biggest draw is its majestic fjords and mountains, an untouched wilderness that you can explore by boat, bus, foot and more.
